'A magical evening I would describe as 'stupidly good'. Godalming students, staff and parents were treated to a special evening of guitar and harp music. Amy and Mike's timing and technique is superb, both in their ensemble and also in the variety of techniques employed on the guitar and harp which involved a whirlwind of slaps, hits, harmonics and lap taps. Their music ranges from light hearted folk to bluesy rock and from TV theme kitsch to serious jazz - they delighted the audience with their superb musicianship at every turn.'

– Dominic Sewell, Head of Music at Godalming College

About the Act

Mike Dawes & Amy Turk are the only steel string acoustic guitar and concert harp duo in the world today. A virtuoso act fluent in a wide variety of instrumental music, Mike & Amy would be delighted to provide your music students with a unique and entertaining recital.

'Completely Spellbinding'
- Evening Post

'Beautiful and sensitively played arrangements and compositions'
- Acoustic Magazine

Mike & Amy can perform a varied set of material, utilising unorthodox and visually entertaining performance techniques. This set includes original compositions, classical music, interpretations of popular song, jazz, folk and world music as well as comical arrangements.

The performance, which usually lasts 40 – 45 minutes, is completely customisable to your specifications. This can then be followed by an optional 'question and answer' style seminar session. The students are given a chance to interact with the performers and learn about what they have just seen. The seminar can last up to 15 minutes and will usually revolve around compositional approaches and techniques used. The session can also be led by a member of staff, if appropriate.

Technical Specifications

Mike Dawes & Amy Turk can provide a small PA if necessary (Fishman SA220 Solo amp), however this would only be suitable for classrooms and other small performance areas. If using a house system, the act only requires 3 channels – one input each for the guitar and harp, and a vocal mic if necessary.

Pricing

Mike & Amy provide a unique service at competitive rates. Fees are tailored to suit individual recitals.
